Investment Strategy

The sub-fund will invest all or substantially all of its assets in the Singapore-domiciled Schroder Asian Growth Fund (“underlying fund”) in SGD N Accumulation Share Class which is managed by Schroder Investment Management (Singapore) Ltd. The underlying manager’s approach is to capitalise on the Schroder group’s strong in-house research capability and exploit market inefficiencies. Over the longer term, the manager of the underlying fund believes that share prices should reflect the ability of companies to create value for shareholders. As such, the distinctive focus of their research is to identify companies that have robust business models, good corporate governance and strong management teams to drive shareholder returns. The underlying fund currently doesn’t intend to carry out securities lending and repurchase transactions but may in the future do so, in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Code of CIS and CPFIS Guidelines.	For further information, please refer to “Investment Scope and Investment Approach” of the Fund Summary for ILP.

KEY RISKS
WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS OF THIS INVESTMENT? You should consider and satisfy yourself as to the risks of investing in the sub-fund. An investment in the sub-fund is meant to produce returns over the long-term. You should not expect to obtain short-term gains from such investments. The securities and instruments in which the sub-fund may invest are subject to market fluctuations and other risks inherent in such investments and there can be no assurance that any appreciation in value will occur. The risk factors may cause you to lose some or all of your investments. A description of the major risks is provided below.	For further information, please refer to “Risks” of the Fund Summary for ILP.
Market and Credit Risks
You are exposed to the following risks: Market Risks The value of investments held by the underlying fund may go up or down, sometimes rapidly or unpredictably. Securities may decline in value due to factors affecting securities markets generally or particular industries. Currency Risks Changes in exchange rates between currencies or the conversion from one currency to another may cause the value of the underlying fund’s investments to diminish or increase. Currency exchange rates may fluctuate significantly over short periods of time. The manager of underlying fund may manage the currency risk by hedging through forward currency contracts, currency futures, currency swap agreements or currency options. There is no guarantee that the desired hedging instruments will be available or hedging techniques will be effective.
Liquidity Risks
You are exposed to liquidity risks There is no secondary market for the sub-fund. All redemption requests should be made to the Manager. In exceptional circumstances, the sub-fund's investment in the underlying fund may not be readily redeemable.
Product-Specific Risks
You are exposed to the following risks: Equity Risks The underlying fund may invest in stocks and other equity securities and their derivatives which are subject to market risks that historically have resulted in greater price volatility than that experienced by bonds and other fixed income securities. Foreign Securities Risks Investments in foreign securities are subject to numerous risks resulting from market and currency fluctuations, future adverse political and economic developments, the possible imposition of restrictions on the repatriation of currency or other governmental laws or restrictions, reduced availability of public information concerning issuers and the lack of uniform accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards or of other regulatory practices and requirements comparable to those applicable to companies in the investor’s domicile. In addition, securities of companies or governments of some countries may be illiquid and their prices volatile and, with respect to certain countries, the possibility exists of expropriation, nationalisation, exchange control restrictions, confiscatory taxation and limitations on the use or removal of funds, or other assets, including withholding of dividends.

Derivatives Risks
 The use of futures, options, warrants, forwards, swaps or swap options involves increased risks. The underlying fund’s ability to use such derivatives successfully depends on the underlying manager’s ability to accurately predict movements in stock prices, interest rates, currency exchange rates or other economic factors and the availability of liquid markets. If the underlying manager’s predictions are wrong, or if the derivatives do not work as anticipated, the underlying fund could suffer greater losses than if the underlying fund had not used the derivatives.

Risks Associated with investing through the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect and Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect
 The underlying fund may invest in China A-Shares of mainland China through the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect and/or the Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect. The current regulations relating to the Stock Connect are untested and subject to change which may have potential retrospective effects.

VALUATIONS AND EXITING FROM THIS INVESTMENT

HOW OFTEN ARE VALUATIONS AVAILABLE?

The sub-fund is valued daily on an offer/bid basis. All transactions for ILP are based on forward pricing. The prices are updated on the website of Income on each business day.

HOW CAN YOU EXIT FROM THIS INVESTMENT AND WHAT ARE THE RISKS AND COSTS IN DOING SO?

You can exit the sub-fund at any time by informing the insurer, either directly or through the financial adviser from whom you purchased the sub-fund.

If you do so within the cancellation period of 14 days from time of purchase, you may do so without incurring the sales charge and fees stated above. However, you will have to take the risk for any price changes in the NAV of the sub-fund since you purchased it.

You will receive the sale proceeds within 7 business days from the time the insurer receives your request to exit from the sub-fund.

Your exit price is determined as follows:

1. If you submit the redemption order before 3 pm on a business day, you will be paid a bid price based on the net asset value of the sub-fund at the close of that business day.
2. If you submit the redemption order after 3 pm, you will be paid a price bid based on the net asset value at the close of the next business day.

The sale proceeds that you will receive will be the exit price multiplied by the number of units sold, less any charges as stated in the terms of the ILP, if applicable.

An example, assuming that redemption charge is not applicable, is as follows:

Exit price	X	Number of units sold	=	Gross Sale Proceeds
S$1,250	X	1,000	=	S$1,250
Gross Sale Proceeds	-	Redemption Charge	=	Net Sale Proceeds
S$1,250	-	S$0.00	=	S$1,250

Depending on the ILP that you are investing in, a redemption charge may be applicable. Please refer to the Product Summary of the ILP for more details.

For further information, please refer to “Subscription of Units” and “Redemption of Units” in section 5 and 6 of the Product Summary for ILP.
