KEY RISKS
WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS OF THIS INVESTMENT?                      You should consider and satisfy yourself as to the risks of investing in the sub-fund. An investment in the sub-fund is meant to produce returns over the long-term. You should not expect to obtain short-term gains from such investments. The securities and instruments in which the sub-fund may invest are subject to market fluctuations and other risks inherent in such investments and there can be no assurance that any appreciation in value will occur. The risk factors may cause you to lose some or all of your investments. A description of the major risks is provided below.	For further information, please refer to “Risks” of the Fund Summary for ILP.
Market and Credit Risks
You are exposed to the following risks: Equity Market, Currency and Interest Rate Risks                      The underlying fund may invest in fixed income and/or equity funds which may be subject to interest rate and equity market fluctuations. The value and income of the underlying fund may not be fully hedged against currency fluctuations. Credit Risks                      Changes in the financial condition or credit standing of an issuer may negatively affect the underlying fund. An issuer of fixed income securities may suffer adverse changes in its financial condition and unable to pay the principal and/or interest on the instrument. Emerging Markets Risks                      The legal infrastructure and accounting, auditing and reporting standards of emerging markets may not provide the same degree of investor protection or disclosure as major securities markets. Political, Regulatory and Legal Risks                      The value of the underlying fund may be affected by international political developments, changes in government policies, taxation, restrictions on foreign investment and currency repatriation, currency fluctuations and other developments in the laws and regulations of countries in which the underlying fund may invest. Fullerton Lux Funds is domiciled in Luxembourg and regulatory protections in Singapore may not apply. They may also be subject to more restrictive regulations and investment limits.

Liquidity Risks
Liquidity risks There is no secondary market for the sub-fund. All redemption requests should be made to the Manager. In exceptional circumstances, the sub-fund's investments in underlying funds may not be readily redeemable.
Product-Specific Risks
Derivatives Risks The underlying fund and its investment funds may use FDIs and these may negatively impact the value of the sub-fund if the FDIs do not work as anticipated. The underlying fund may suffer greater losses than if FDIs are not used. FDIs are exposed to counterparty, regulatory and other risks. Risk of Investing in other funds including ETFs The underlying fund may be heavily invested in one or a very small number of investment funds, which could result in larger gains or losses. The trading price of an ETF may differ from its NAV. China Risk The underlying fund may be exposed to risks of investing in China such as limited investment capabilities, QFII/RQFII/Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect investment restrictions, risks of investing indirectly through P-Notes, illiquidity of the Chinese domestic securities market, delay/disruption in the execution and settlement of trades, and/or taxation policies uncertainties. Commodities Risk The prices of commodity equities and futures are influenced by various macroeconomic factors such as changing supply and demand relationships, climatic and geopolitical conditions, disease and other natural phenomena, agricultural, trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control programmes and policies of governments (including government intervention in certain markets) and other unforeseeable events. Investing in Private Equity Funds Private equity funds generally have a long investment horizon and commonly experience negative returns in the first few years. The underlying fund may be subject to binding capital commitments and defaulting on such capital calls may result in adverse consequences. The underlying fund's operations depend on third parties and it may suffer disruption or loss in the event of their failure.
FEES AND CHARGES
WHAT ARE THE FEES AND CHARGES OF THIS INVESTMENT? Payable directly by you You will need to pay the following fees and charges as a percentage of your gross investment sum: <table border="1" style="width: 100%;"> <tbody> <tr> <td style="width: 15%;">Premium Charge</td> <td>Premium charge may apply. VALUATIONS AND EXITING FROM THIS INVESTMENT

HOW OFTEN ARE VALUATIONS AVAILABLE? The sub-fund is valued daily on an offer/bid basis. All transactions for ILP are based on forward pricing. The prices are updated on the website of Income on each business day. HOW CAN YOU EXIT FROM THIS INVESTMENT AND WHAT ARE THE RISKS AND COSTS IN DOING SO? You can exit the sub-fund at any time by informing the insurer, either directly or through the financial adviser from whom you purchased the sub-fund. If you do so within the cancellation period of 14 days from time of purchase, you may do so without incurring the sales charge and fees stated above. However, you will have to take the risk for any price changes in the NAV of the sub-fund since you purchased it. You will receive the sale proceeds within 7 business days from the time the insurer receives your request to exit from the sub-fund. Your exit price is determined as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. If you submit the redemption order before 3 pm on a business day, you will be paid a bid price based on the net asset value of the sub-fund at the close of that business day.</li> <li>2. If you submit the redemption order after 3 pm, you will be paid a price bid based on the net asset value at the close of the next business day.</li> </ol> The sale proceeds that you will receive will be the exit price multiplied by the number of units sold, less any charges as stated in the terms of the ILP, if applicable. An example, assuming that redemption charge is not applicable, is as follows <table border="1" style="width: 100%; border-collapse: collapse;"> <tr> <td style="background-color: #f2f2f2;">Exit price</td> <td style="text-align: center;">X</td> <td style="background-color: #f2f2f2;">Number of units sold</td> <td style="text-align: center;">=</td> <td style="background-color: #f2f2f2;">Gross Sale Proceeds</td> </tr> <tr> <td style="text-align: left;">S$1,250</td> <td style="text-align: center;">X</td> <td style="text-align: left;">1,000</td> <td style="text-align: center;">=</td> <td style="text-align: left;">S$1,250</td> </tr> </table> <table border="1" style="width: 100%; border-collapse: collapse;"> <tr> <td style="background-color: #f2f2f2;">Gross Sale Proceeds</td> <td style="text-align: center;">-</td> <td style="background-color: #f2f2f2;">Redemption Charge</td> <td style="text-align: center;">=</td> <td style="background-color: #f2f2f2;">Net Sale Proceeds</td> </tr> <tr> <td style="text-align: left;">S$1,250</td> <td style="text-align: center;">-</td> <td style="text-align: left;">S$0.00</td> <td style="text-align: center;">=</td> <td style="text-align: left;">S$1,250</td> </tr> </table> Depending on the ILP that you are investing in, a redemption charge may be applicable.
